

CAPITOL HILL ART WALK: QUEER EDITION

Queer-themed, queer artist, and/or queer-run venues for the Thursday June 9 version of Capitol Hill Art Walk

Americana	"Thank you, Sir" Stretched vinyl and mixed media with a provocative twist by Capitol Hill artist and designer Brad Gordon.	219 Broadway E
Blue Cone Studios	"And Joy" in celebration of our LGBTQ friends and fellow artists we are featuring Mark Mueller's works on paper, photography by Meagan Hall, and live sounds by noise artist Spoono Ghiefardi. Look for the Blue Cone!	1520 11th Ave, Door B
Bluebird Microcreamery & Brewery	Celebrate the month of Pride with us with over half a dozen artists from the LGBT community and a live performance by Arson Nicki - an aggressively transgressive drag creature expanding creative boundaries. End your night of art with ice cream and draft beer! After 9pm & get a second scoop free!	1205 E. Pike St
Broadcast Coffee Cafe Pettirosso	New local art and great coffee. Happy Pride! "Freak Flag Fly" A Queer aesthetic Art show . Compromised of Cafe Pettirosso's Barista - Rio Abundez, Pastry Chef - Eric Todd, & Bartender - Rob Welch, exhibiting their new works for the Queer Edition of the Capitol Hill Art Walk. Come one come all! Artist Reception 6pm- 9pm	1623 Bellevue Ave. 1101 E. Pike St.
Calypte Gallery	"Milk, Milk, Lemonade". Alfred Harris and Jeffry Mitchell. Collaborated masterpieces on paper and ceramics by Mitchell. 5:30-9:00pm	1107 E Denny Way #A2
Creative Blueprint	Featuring a queer-themed art show in celebration of Pride month!	1617 Boylston Ave
Cupcake Royale	Andrew Schultz uses flat, graphic forms and bubblegum colored explorations of pop, kitsch, and geometric line drawings to convey scenes of willful isolation, ritual, and an inescapable queerness.	1111 E. Pike St.
Ghost Gallery	Benefit show for the Gender Justice League in honor of Pride Month! Co-curated by Grant Rehnberg. Local artists will be selling T-Shirts, Tanks, Totes & more featuring positive messages of love/acceptance/equality. Live performance by Mal DeFleur during Art Walk!	504 East Denny Way #1
Ingersoll Gender Center	Showcasing a group show of transgender and queer art and artists in celebration of Pride month.	517 E Pike Street, lower floor
John Criscitello Studio	Open studio tonight 6-9pm // Lots of new prints /paintings & one of a kind garments .Please stop by and say hi ! Enter by the gate door on the 12th Ave side of the building	1202 E. Pine St
Northwest Film Forum	Queer Fan Night! Start off with Happy Hour in the lobby at 7pm followed by a screening of Nightmare on Elm Street 2 at 8pm, all hosted by Scott & Lance, of Cineoke fame. Co-presented with Three Dollar Bill Cinema.	1515 12th Ave
Out of the Closet Thrift Store	Featuring two musical acts performing during Queer edition of the Capitol Hill Art Walk. Happy pride! Stop in and have a listen.	1016 E. Pike St
Pony	BEYOND THE TARADOME! Featuring Tara-inspired ART, so strap on your blonde wigs and come get creative with us. Also hosting a beauty bar, crafts, snacks, sounds and a coloring contest, too.	1221 East Madison Street
Refresh Frozen Desserts & Espresso	QTAPI: Nutrients of Self. For Pride month, Queer Trans Asian Pacific Islander self-identified artists showcase their work which sustains and nourishes them. Artists Raychelle Duazo, Darius X, and James Lawrence Ardeña explore their intersectional identities though illustration, print and mixed media collage.	1620 Broadway, Suite 100D
SugarPill		900 E Pine Street,

The Factory	Adrien Leavitt's "Queer Feelings" is a photographic exploration of queerness and our intimate, complex relationship with our bodies, both physically and emotionally. Join us during the second annual Queer Art Walk for a photographic exploration of Queer Feelings.	1216 10th Ave
True Love Art Gallery	Forgotten Dreams. Vibrant and whimsical paintings by THE DRIFT, a pair of artists who have collaborated for many years through their mural painting and public art activities across the country. Opening reception with music by Jim Jaxson, 6 - 10pm.	1525 Summit Ave E
V2	Stop in for our very first open house at V2 during the Capitol Hill Art Walk. Featuring The Family Connection installation by Grant Rehnberg!	